

Scott R. Fisk, MFA

Scott has taught at Memphis College of Art, American Intercontinental University, and Samford University. He received his MFA from Memphis College of Art in Computer Art and his BFA in Graphic Design from Henderson State University. Scott's interests include web design, typography, photography, motion graphics and multimedia. He began his career in graphic design in 1994 at NetM Communications, a interactive agency with customers in the US, Canada, Australia, and the Europe. Since then, Scott has lived and worked in the United States and Britain. His motion graphic works have been featured on major television networks in the US, Australia and Japan. Scott's work is part of permanent collections in numerous galleries and museums including the US National Achieves. Scott served as a Army Reserve Photo-Journalist in Iraq often embedding as a combat photographer and cinematographer with US and Iraqi units during combat operations. Scott is an active member of the American Institute of Graphic Arts (AIGA) and spent three years as a Birmingham AIGA board member and Educational Chair. Scott enjoys traveling with his wife Timarie who shares his peculiar interest in ephemera, broadsides and antique printing processes.